PIANOS PURCHASED

Committee Settles Long Drawn Out

School Board Wrangle.

Settling the long drawn out controversy over purchase of pianos for the public schools, a committee to which the matter was left by the School Board has bought three Davenport-Tracy, and one from the Lee Permian Piano Company, at $200 each.
The committee visited the various music stores with several skilled musicians and tested a number of instruments and examined their interior work. With a view of ascertaining their durability for practice purposes in the schools, a report of the purchase will be made to the next meeting of the City School Board, but as the committee was given power to act, the plan will be put in at once.

BALTIMORE WANTS MEETING

Representative From That City Asks

Richmond's Vote for Elks' Convention.

Jack L. Ottenheimer, of Baltimore, a traveling salesman, who carries as a side line a good assortment of goods about the Maryland City as a meeting place for the national convention of the Elks in 1913, will appear before members of that order in this city today, urging them to give the Baltimore movement their endorsement.
Mr. Ottenheimer is brimful of facts about Baltimore's hospitality and ability to handle the convention. He expects to draw up considerable results from the national convention of the Elks in 1913, will appear before members of that order in this city to-
movement their endorsement.

The last Elks' convention was held in Portland, Ore., and members of the order flock to the far West from all over the country, crowding Portland to its capacity during the season. It draws annually thousands of persons to the city where it is held.

NEGRO SHOTS TOWN SERGEANT

Deliberately Attempts to Murder Charlotte County
Officer.

SENT FOR BLOODHOUNDS

Major Patton Sent Dogs in Motor Car From State Farm.

Monroe Dickerson, town sergeant of Charlotte County, was dangerously wounded, not fatally shot last night while attempting to serve a warrant upon Eli Morton, a negro, charged with burglary, committed several days ago.
The shooting occurred about 8 o'clock in front of the courthouse at the county seat, and the news came to Richmond through a request for blood-hounds to track the assailant of the officer.

The demand for the hounds was made by Major James D. Patton, member of the State Penitentiary Board, and he at once complied. At that time, the story was that Dickerson was either dead or had been mortally wounded.
An automobile was sent to the State Farm and the hounds hurried to Bon Air, where the Southern train, leaving Richmond at 11:45 o'clock, was held for fifteen minutes to give the penitentiary authorities time to reach the station.

Preceding the arrival of the hounds, and shortly after the officer was shot, several improvised posse, composed of men who had been quickly deputized as officers, started in pursuit of the negro. One of these posse was in charge of Sheriff J. Coleman Friddy.

Shooting Was Deliberate.

The little town is aroused over the shooting, and from the reports received, summary punishment of the negro, in the event he is captured by any one of the several posse started after him, is not unexpected. The shooting was deliberate, and poor aim, coupled with the speed with which Alexander Williams came to the rescue and tore the pistol from the would-be murderer, alone accounts for Dickerson being alive.

Two shots were fired, but only one, the first, took effect, entering Dickerson's breast, where, deflected by a rib, it took a circuitous path, lodging under the shoulderblade. Drs. Tucker, Eliott and Gibbs treated the wounded man, extracted the bullet, and announced that, unless complications arise, he would recover. The sergeant is married, and his wife, with their two children, was at once notified. He was immediately removed to his home.

What is regarded by his fellow-townsmen as the attempted assassination of an officer in the discharge of his duty caused the desire to avenge the assault, and the negro leaped and bounced. Hardly had the wounded man fallen when his many friends started in pursuit of the negro. Darkness had gathered, and he managed to escape, though the remaining bullets in the pistol, a .38-caliber revolver, were fired at the fugitive by Alexander Williams.

Morton, against whom the warrant of theft was issued, is between twenty-five and thirty years old. He is said to have robbed the store of W. H.

Smith & Co.

PLUMBER BANKRUPT

T. W. Duke Files Petition in District

A petition in involuntary bankruptcy was filed yesterday in the United States District Court by T. W.
Duke, a plumber and steamfitter of this city. The liabilities are $1,664.
76 and the assets, $600.00.

The list of creditors includes a number of Richmond firms, chief among whom are: A. L. Harrison, $150; Manchester National Bank, $1-50; Haines, Jones & Cadbury, $100; J. L. Lindsay, $50.00; and Clarence Wyatt, $125.00. The three first named creditors are secured by deed of trust on improved property at 315 West Fourth Street, South Richmond.
The foreign creditors include the American Radiator Company, Philadelphia, $225; Isaac H. Sheppard, Baltimore, $300; and the Stratton & Brazz Company, Petersburg, $167. In the schedule of assets is included thirty shares of stock in the Duke Heating and Water Company, valued at $2,000.

DOCTORS TO MEET

Academy of Medicine Will Elect Of### ficers for Ensuing Year.

The Richmond Academy of Medicine and Surgery will hold its regular meeting in the auditorium of the University college of Medicine at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday evening, December 10. Cases will be presented and discussed by Assistant Secretary E. H. Terrell, M. D., requested a full attendance.
The paper of the evening will be read by Dr. A. L. Gray on the subject, "X-ray Examination of the Chest." Discussion on it will be led by Drs.
C. M. Hazen and D. D. Bailey. The meeting will be of particular importance because of the annual election of officers.

In accordance with this plan Second Lieutenant Raleigh W. Hicks was promoted to the first Lieutenancy, and First Sergeant James Bransford Puller elevated to the office made vacant by the promotion of Mr. Hicks. Captain Pulver will appoint a first sergeant at an early date.

Between fifty and sixty members of the company responded to the call for the meeting. The election proceeded amidst much impromptu speechmaking. When the first seconding motion for the promotion of the last officer of the state, was made, the latter Lieutenant of the company was highly complimented for his services to the good of the whole pro-

The election of all the officers was made by unanimous vote. It was the general feeling that they had carried out an idea which was brought out strongly in all of the speeches.
Captain Pulver was commissioned a first lieutenant in April 1911, and has now been promoted to the rank of captain.
At the conclusion of the election the company adjourned to a downtown hotel and finished the evening up with a spread.

Postmaster Allen Improving.

St. Luke's Hospital reported yesterday that the condition of Postmaster Edgar Allen, Jr., who has been critisteadily improving. It is the purpose of the physicians to operate upon him as soon as he has recovered sufficient strength.

QUARLES TO DIE IN CHAIR FRIDAY

Negro Convicted of Brutal Assault on Young School Teacher Faces Death.

NO REFERENCE TO GIRL

No Mention of Love Affair Contained in Suicide's Last Message.

According to information which has drifted back to Richmond from Owensboro, Ky., no light was shed upon the motive for his suicide in the sealed letter which was left by W. B. Bell, the young tobacco-cut, whose self-inflicted death in Murphy's Hotel on November 29 was a complete mystery.

The letter, which was directed to be opened only by Bell's brother, was expected to explain the cause of the suicide.
The sealed missive contained no reference to the young woman, whose picture was found in the back of Bell's watch, nor did it refer in any way to his unexpected act. It simply gave directions for the disposition of the money and effects which the young man left together with a farewell word to his family.

With this information, which drifted from his family in Kentucky, all expectation of clearing up the mystery surrounding his suicide is dispelled.
Even to his intimate friends and relatives, his last death will remain an enigma. So far as could be discovered, absolutely no reasons could be assigned in explanation of Bell's act, unless it was mental depression. He was well placed financially, held in high regard at the Federal Cigar Company, where he was former factory manager, and in the best of health, and in seemingly no way at all, just at the time when his friends received news of the discovery of his dead body.

Story of Mystery.

The first intimation of the tragedy was given to the world when a cham-bermaid of Murphy's Hotel, who had been unable to gain admittance to Bell's room or any response to continued knocking, reported the matter to the manager, and an entrance to the room was forced. The body of W.
B. Bell, cold with death, was found stretched upon the floor, with a bullet through his heart and a revolver cluttered in his right hand. Although every effort was immediately made to discover the motive for his act, the reason for the suicide remained shrouded in mystery.

On the table of the room were found an open note directing that his roommates at the Hanover Apartments be notified and a sealed letter bearing the inscription: "To be opened by no one but E. M. Bell, Jr., please." The last request of the dead man was respected, and the letter, unopened, delivered into the hands of his brother, who rushed to Richmond from New York. With the seal still unbroken, E.
M. Bell, Jr., carried the letter to Owensboro, Ky., where it was opened and read in the presence of the family of the young man.

On Tuesday afternoon, November 13, Bell quit work at the Federal Cigar Company's factory in seemingly good spirits, but instead of going to his residence in the Hanover Apartments, he went to Murphy's Hotel and secured a room. The condition of the body when found, more than twenty-five hours later, indicated that the shot which ended his life was fired Tuesday evening about 7 o'clock.

CATCH ALLEGED MURDERER

Negro, Charged With Shooting An### other in Country, Caught Yesterday.

Ben Richardson, the negro who is charged in Henrico County with shooting John Jefferson Saturday night in a dispute over a trap game, and who had been missing since that evening, was captured yesterday by Deputy Sheriff W. W. Snyder, and Policeman Shoemaker and Caul, in a house of Lucinda Alston, 314 N. Street, where it is supposed he has been hiding for the past three days.
The Alston woman was arrested along with Richardson, and lodged in the county jail on a charge of harboring a fugitive from the law. It is said that when the three officers first went to her house and asked for Richardson, she denied that he was there, and refused to permit them to search for him until a warrant was produced.
Deputy Sheriff Snyder was the one who elected to enter the house. Before so doing he stationed Policeman Caul at the rear door, and Policeman Shoemaker at the front door. Just as he started into the house, he heard a swish, and a negro flashed past him evidently commencing a sprint for liberty. Policeman Shoemaker was ready with his pistol, and the fleeing figure was ordered to halt. Richardson was soon handcuffed, and on his way to jail.
